Whirls her huge orb around the golden sun;
Borne on the wings of time, with swift career,
Successive months proclaim the new-born year.

☞ P. S. As it was deemed important to have the Apportionment Bill inserted in the Register, the printing of the first form was suspended until the 25th of December, when it was received. On the 27th the Register was for sale. On the 28th a bill passed to change the time of the sittings of the Court of Common Pleas, and the Probate Court for Rockingham County. On the 27th the press was stopped, after a small part of the edition was worked off, and the alterations were made in the calendar pages. The sittings of the Courts—Superior, Common Pleas and Probate—as set down in these calendar pages, are believed to be as given in the law of Dec. 1844. It is hoped the mode adopted in these calendar pages will be found convenient for reference.

Hark! the winds whistles rudely—the shadows are closing,
That inwrap his broad path in the mantle of night;
While pleasure's gay sons are in quiet reposing,
Undismay'd at the wrecks that have number'd his flight.

A LIST OF THE GOVERNORS AND COMMANDERS-IN-CHIEF

OF NEW-HAMPSHIRE, FROM ITS FIRST SETTLEMENT.

[New-Hampshire was first settled in 1628, by Edward and William Hilton, brothers, from London, and David Thompson, from Scotland. During the first 18 years after the settlement, the people in the several Plantations were governed by Agents appointed by the Proprietors, or by magistrates chosen by themselves. In 1641, they became united to Massachusetts, and so continued until 1680, when New-Hampshire became a Royal Province; and, excepting an interregnum from 1689 to 1692, when the people again put themselves under the protection of Massachusetts, continued a provincial government until the Revolution. Massachusetts was made a Province in 1692, and the same Governor was over that and New-Hampshire, from 1699 till 1741, when a separate governor of New-Hampshire was appointed, and all connection with Massachusetts ceased.]

STATE INSTITUTIONS.

N. HAMPSHIRE ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE.

INCORPORATED JULY 2, 1838.

The Asylum is located in Concord, about half a mile south-westerly from the state-house, on a pleasant elevation, with a beautiful view of the village, and of the Merrimack meandering in its course through a rich intervale dotted with the stately elm which so much adorns the villages, commons, and malls in New-England.

It has accommodations for 120 patients. The whole outlay, including buildings, furniture, &c., was, up to June 1st, 1844, $35.266.70. This amount includes donations made for 120 acres of land.

The Asylum has been occupied nearly two years, and during that time 220 of the unfortunate insane, in the various grades of mental derangement, have enjoyed its benefits—of whom 63 have become clothed in their right minds again, and have gone to their homes.

Eighty patients remain (October 12, 1844) in the institution.

The price of board, which includes all necessary expense but clothing, has been fixed, for those whose residence is in this state, at $2.25 per week, for the first quarter; $2.00 for the second, and afterward $1.75 per week, so long as they may remain at the institution.

N. H. STATE PRISON.

Warden, Hon. Samuel G. Berry.
Deputy Warden, William Berry.
Chaplain, Rev. John Atwood.
Physician, Ezra Carter, M. D.

Each of the convicts is supplied with a temperance paper, weekly; and pamphlets, tracts, and religious newspapers, are also circulated among them. The Prison Library, for the use of the convicts, consists of about three hundred volumes. Two religious services are held in the chapel on the Sabbath, attended by all the convicts, together with the Officers of the Prison.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

1st Vice President, S. D. BELL, Manchester.

Recording Secretary, Franklin Pierce, Concord.
Corresponding Secretary, Franklin Pierce, Concord.
Treasurer, Rev. E. E. Cummings, do.
Librarian, Rev. Nathaniel Bouton, do.

The library and cabinet of this Society are located in the Hall over the Merrimack County Bank, at Concord. The Society has published five volumes of collections, containing a large mass of valuable and curious historical matter.

The Society, having in view the establishment of such a collection of books and curiosities as shall be an honor to the State, and useful to posterity, respectfully ask contributions from every citizen of New-Hampshire, who would wish to preserve the memorials of her history and renown. They ask not for themselves alone, but for the benefit of the public, and of future generations. Any gift, however small, will be thankfully received, and carefully preserved—the name of the donor will be recorded, with the gift, in the Society's records, and published. Individuals making donations will also be entitled to admission to the rooms, and a free examination of the books and manuscripts.

In the course of the past year, the books and pamphlets have been classed, arranged in tasteful and convenient order on shelves and bookstands; the specimens of mineralogy, geology, and curiosities, are classically arranged in cases; or, such as are inconvenient to place in cases, suspended or placed in different parts of the spacious hall.

A well arranged Catalogue has been made out of all the books, and pamphlets. A catalogue probably will be published at some future, and not far distant time, and which will undoubtedly serve to increase the public interest in this valuable and important institution.

The editor regrets very much, that he has not been furnished with statistics of Academies and High-schools, generally, throughout the State, so as to enable him to give such tabular views of them, as might be made a source for reference, of much value in the cause of education. The nature and design of this little work is such, that the tabulars must necessarily be very brief, yet, it is confidently believed, would be of much value for reference.

OFFICIAL ELECTORAL VOTE.

The declaration of the vote, as given on page 117, is not strictly correct in point of numbers, but it is so in the declaration in the names of those elected. As the votes of several towns, owing to some informalities of the town clerks in their returns, were considered scattering; subsequently, after summoning the said clerks to appear before the House, they were allowed to correct their returns—and the following is the official:

STATE EXPENDITURES, 1843.

The total amount of expenditures from June, 1843, to June, 1844, was 109·366·62; of which was paid travel and attendance of Council, Senate, House of Representatives, $15·860·40; paid appropriations for blind, deaf, and dumb, $1·050; paid military appropriations, $3.080·58; paid cash borrowed, $55 673 86. The balance was paid for Geological Survey, State Printers, salaries of State Officers, and contingent expenses.

OBITUARY NOTICES.

Hon. Hall Burgin died October 2, 1844, in the 75th year of his age. He was born of very respectable parents in New-Market; his father removed to Allenstown when the subject of this notice was at the age of five years.

About the year 1803 he married Hannah Emery, a very worthy lady, the daughter of Joseph Emery, of Pembroke.

Mr. Burgin was appointed justice of the peace in 1804, and continued in commission until his death. Such was his uniform correctness in transacting business, and impartiality in adjusting differences and difficulties brought before him, with a strict eye to justice and equity, that he acquired a universal reputation for sincerity, honesty and uprightness.

He represented Allenstown in the Legislature several years; was appointed Judge in the Court of Sessions in 1817; afterward appointed an associate Justice in the Court of Common Pleas for the county of Rockingham.

In 1835 he removed to Concord, carrying with him a large estate, which he had acquired during a long series of years, by industry and economy, and somewhat from the rise in the value of his timberlands. While in Concord, in a pecuniary point of view Judge Burgin's fortune was somewhat reversed, but that seemed not to effect the serenity and cheerfulness of his mind; his faith was such, and the faculties of his mind so well balanced, that under all his reverses, he appeared to enjoy more perfect happiness than falls to the common lot of man.

As a christian, it may be truly said, he lived as one and died as one.

Hon. Noah Tebbets died at Rochester, Sept. 9, 1844, aged 42.

Judge Tebbets was graduated at Bowdoin College, in 1822. He soon after commenced the study of Law, in the office of Jeremiah H. Woodman, Esq., Rochester, N H., and continued three years; then commenced the practice of Law in Parsonsfield, Maine. He remained there about ten years, the most of which time he was in partnership with the Hon. Rufus McIntire. About nine years since, he returned to Rochester, and continued his profession.

In 1842 he was elected representative to the State Legislature; and before the time had elapsed for which he was chosen to serve, he was appointed one of the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas for the State, which office he held at the time of his decease.

" His character, disposition and habits of thought eminently qualified him for success in the office to which he was promoted. * * * * * * * *

A friend of Judge Tibbets, who has known him from infancy, says that the trait of character which most eminently distinguished him, was, after all, his integrity.

* * * * * * * *

As a husband, he was all that the most sensitive affection could desire. As a father, he was kind, affectionate, and forgiving. Remembering that children are men and women in embryo, he was as an elder companion to his children, calling and inviting them by his own example to strive after moral and intellectual excellence, rather than sternly commanding them with the voice of authority."

WINTHROP SMITH, Esq., died at Durham, Sept. He was highly esteemed as a citizen, for his uprightnesss and honesty. He was chosen Representative in March, and attended the June session of the Legislature, 1844, in his usual health.
